VOLUME CVIII.--NO. 92. ALEXANDRIA, VA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 17, 1907. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Nature's Way Is Best.

The function strengthening and tissue building plan of treating chronic, lingering and obstinate cases of disease as pursued by Dr. Pierce, is following after Nature's plan of restoring health.

He uses natural remedies, that is extracts from native medicinal roots, prepared by processes wrought out by the expenditure of much time and money, without the use of alcohol, and by skillful combination in just the right proportions.

Used as ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Black Cherry-bark, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot and Stone root, specially exert their influence in cases of lung, bronchial and throat troubles, and this "Discovery" is, therefore, a sovereign remedy for bronchitis, laryngitis, chronic coughs, catarrh and kindred ailments.

The above native roots also have the strongest possible endorsement from the leading medical writers, of all the several schools of practice, for the cure not only of diseases named above but also for indigestion, torpor of liver, or billousness, obstinate constipation, kidney and bladder troubles and catarrh, no matter where located.

You don't have to take Dr. Pierce's say-so alone as to this; what he claims for his "Discovery" is backed up by the writings of the most eminent men in the medical profession. A request by postal card or letter, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a little book of extracts from eminent medical authorities endorsing the ingredients of his medicines, will bring a little book free that is worthy of your attention if needing a good, safe, reliable remedy of known composition for the cure of almost any old chronic, or lingering malady.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

The most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A splendid 1008-page volume, with engravings and colored plates. A copy, paper-covered, will be sent to anyone sending 21 cents in one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unanimous About It.

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and so proves it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effects, charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.

If it's painful periods with women, same cause.

If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets

Fra Roasts Lawyers, Doctors and Clergy.

Here are some of the Hubbardisms gently thrown off by Fra Elbertus Himself in his lecture on "Doctors, Lawyers and Preachers," which he gave to a good looking audience of 2100 in the Academy of Music in Philadelphia Sunday night.

"There is nothing permanent but change."

"Doctors charge $5 to $500 for similar services; lawyers take all you've got and clergymen live on tips."

"According to common report, there are three 'learned professions'—miscalled, because much of what they know is not true—and one of them doesn't pay full fare on the railroads yet. The preacher rides on a child's ticket, but his childishness doesn't consist in the size of his body. It's his mentality."

"We believe in the thing that is to our interest to believe in."

"In a lawsuit, both sides always lose—to the lawyers!"

"Hop-tea is all right unless you get it from Milwaukee."

"Half the business of every lawyer is to show us how to evade the law."

"In this country only one man out of every five believes in the Christian religion, yet the four-fifths are taxed to pay for a religion they don't believe."

"Did you ever notice that the Christian religion and the Christ-religion are totally different things? The religion of Christ has never been practiced, but I believe we are on the verge of it right now."

"One horseshoe is a sign of good luck, but a wagon load of horseshoes is junk."

"The trouble with some people's health is that they give the wood-pile absent treatment."

"The best doctors nowadays are those who give the least medicine and charge the largest fees."

"It takes twenty years of persistent practice and constant effort to bring on a good case of locomoter ataxia, and ten years of the same programme to hatch a case of Bright's disease."

"Habits, when young, are like lion whelps—you can play with them without danger. But as they grow older they get strong and either put you on the Success Limited or the Twenty-three Skidoo Accommodation without a return ticket."

"The world was discovered in 1492, but it was not until 1776 that man was discovered, and woman was not discovered until a hundred years after that, although some folks had long suspected her existence."

"When we go to a hospital, they give us cocaine and remove our pocket-books."

"Billy Muldoon says no man ever has insommia who has to get up at 6 o'clock in the morning."

"To get a job is just as well as to accept a situation."

"Any man who gets the study habit will become a distinguished person."

"In the matter of fresh air we are very economical. That's because it's free, like salvation. If there were air-meters, we would use a great deal more and think a great deal more of what we do use, and if we wait long enough the Standard Oil may give us the meters."

"They just had to hang old John Brown because he had such a great neck for a rope."

"Woman is the equal of man when she is, and when she isn't, she isn't."

"In architecture the Greeks struck 13, but when they built a temple they didn't pattern it after the one you people have just put up in Harrisburg."

"If you let 'em, the doctors will give you putty ceilings and birch for mahogany."

"The Scotch have produced three bad things—Scotch humor, Scotch whisky and Scotch religion."

"Heresy used to be something to be afraid of; now it's an advertisement."

"When you pursue culture, you never catch her, and the man who works for character never has much."

"Ninevah and Babylon were very much like New York city, so civilization did not remain with them; it moved along."

"If you were to die tonight, and your dying meant you had to change your business, it would sort o' look as if you were in the wrong business, so you'd better get out."

"The man who goes after a good time never has one."

"Wouldn't you rather be an 'is-now' than a 'has-was'? And who wouldn't rather be either than a 'not-yet-but-soon'?"

"Men used to run away from the world to go into the saint business, but now the saints are the business men."

"Defeat consists in acknowledging defeat, and the man who never knows he fails never fails."

"A cheerful loser is a winner."

"You need me and I need you, and neither of us will be here so very long."

Young Woman Assaulted.

An attempt to assault a young white woman was made early yesterday morning about half a mile from Bengles station, on the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad. The victim was Miss Elizabeth Ann Stevens, who is employed as a stenographer in Baltimore, and who was on her way to her place of employment when she was attacked. A white man, who gave his name as John Green, but who could not satisfactorily account for his presence not far from the scene of the attempted assault was arrested.

Miss Stevens had taken a short cut through the woods to the station, and, so far as she could see, was absolutely alone on the path. When about half way to the station, a man, whose face she did not see, stepped behind her and placed his hand firmly over her eyes, throwing her to the ground. Whether the hand was that of a white man or a negro she was unable to say, but thought that it was that of a white man. She immediately became unconscious, and when she recovered her senses she found herself lying in the wood. She staggered to her feet and made her way to her home, where, after telling her mother of the attack, she became unconscious again, and remained so for several hours.

On account of Miss Stevens' inability to see the face of the man who attacked her the police regard the chances of identification as doubtful.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklin's Arnica Salve. SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 17, 1907.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT may learn that there is such a thing as overplaying a game if he doesn't soon ease his readiness to add to the list of those engaged in that "$5,000,000 conspiracy." The latest to have that indictment hurled at him from the White House is Col. George B. M. Harvey, editor of the North American Review, who made such a florid and bitter attack on the President in his Jefferson day speech, Saturday night. The intimations Wednesday from the vicinity of Mr. Roosevelt sought to show that Colonel Harvey is closely allied with the interests of J. Pierpont Morgan, Mr. Harriman and other men of wealth, and that they are all interested in taking a shy at the President's policies. Friends think it is mistaken policy on the part of the President to harp on the opposition of the moneyed interests as a "conspiracy," especially when he allows his anger to fall upon any one the moment disagreement with him is shown. Not a few of these believe it would be the wiser policy for him to leave the interpretation of the remarks of opponents to his policies to the intelligence of the people.

IF SECRETARY TAFT, and his friends fail to "make good" in the fight with Senator Foraker, of Ohio, the President is apparently ready to take up Governor Hughes, of New York, and make him the administration candidate for the republican presidential nomination next year. For some days reports have been in circulation that the President wasn't satisfied with the showing made by the Taft forces in the preliminaries of the Ohio contest. If the Secretary of War and his friends are not strong enough to win in the Secretary's own State the latter will practically be out of the race for the presidential nomination. In this event the President wants another man to turn to, and he will hold Hughes in reserve for that purpose. And Hughes, to be available, must "make good" in his fight for reform legislation in New York, and the President evidently means to help him do so by throwing the weight of the national administration on his side in the contest with the recalcitrants in the legislature and the State organization. Secretary Taft is not the only man whom Mr. Roosevelt has left in the lurch.

FRIENDSHIP for Vice President Fairbanks is now said to have been back of the severance of John W. Yerkes' connection with the Internal Revenue Bureau as commissioner. The resignation of Mr. Yerkes was announced at the close of last week, and it was officially said he was to enter a Washington law firm. It is now whispered that the resignation was prompted by the administration, which had become alarmed lest Mr. Yerkes use the internal revenue service—which is a vast one, with ramifications all over the country—for the benefit of the Fairbanks presidential boom.

JAPAN joins in the general movement for the abolition of war by launching a battleship which will carry four 12-inch, twelve 10-inch and twelve 4.7 inch guns. This argument for peace has been answered by the launching by Great Britain of another battleship of the Invincible type, and such arguments can only be overcome by some other piece of steel logic concluding with twelve 12-inch and four 10-inch guns.

MR. W. J. BRYAN addressed the publicity organization in New York last night in favor of a strong measure to compel the disclosure of campaign contributions before elections. Should such disclosure be made, which is not at all probable, the scandals brought upon corporations and prominent republicans would be astounding.

ENGLAND IS experiencing a good deal of a sensation in seeing Dr. Jameson, whose raid precipitated the Boer war, and General Botha, of the Transvaal, associated in the conference of Colonial Premiers. Great are the changes wrought by time.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Washington, April 17.

Serious results to Porto Rican trade are feared as a consequence of the decree just issued by the French government assessing the maximum rates of duty upon coffee coming from that island or from any port of the United States. Heretofore Porto Rican coffee has been admitted to France at the minimum rates of duty. The change, it is feared, will ruin the coffee industry in that island. At the State Department it is admitted that the French government had notified this country of its intention but there was nothing to be done to prevent it.

The taking of testimony in the case against Representative Binger Hermann, charged with destroying valuable records of the land office, was finished today. The question of prayers to be offered by either side will occupy several days. It is expected that the case will go to the jury early next week.

Elizabeth M. Watts has been appointed postmaster at Monroe, Amherst county, Va.

William Proudfit Burden was quietly married in Grace Church, New York, today to Miss Natica Rives, daughter of Mr. George Rives.

Today or tomorrow the peace conference between the representatives of the victorious President Zelaya, of Nicaragua, and President Figuers, of Salvador, who espoused the cause of the defeated president of Honduras, Manuel Bonilla, will probably have its first session. All fighting in Central America has ceased and it is believed that this meeting will afford a basis upon which may be constructed an agreement among all of the Central American States for a permanent peace, including, perhaps, a federation of the five republics for their mutual political and commercial advantage.

Senor Cores, the Nicaraguan Minister to this country, today had a long conference at the State Department with Assistant Secretary Bacon with regard to the permanent peace conference in which it is hoped that each of the five Central American republics will take part. Senor Cores, on behalf of his government, is earnestly desirous that this conference should be held in this city and it was for the purpose of arranging matters to this end that he visited the department today. No definite action will, however, be taken until the results are known of the present conference being held at Amapala between the ministers of foreign affairs of Nicaragua and Salvador.

News of the Day.

More indictments of San Francisco officials are expected at the conclusion of the grand jury's investigation of alleged slot, Ohina grafting. The work of securing the jury to try Abe Ruef is going on slowly.

Chief of Police Shippy, of Chicago reappointed by Mayor Busse today, issued a statement in which he acknowledges he gave $100 towards the campaign fund used by the democrats in their efforts to re-elect ex-Mayor Dunne.

The sequel of the shooting of five white men and two negroes at Bunkie, La., Sunday, was the lynching of the negro Charlie Strauss, near Eola, La., yesterday. Masked men took him away from deputies who had arrested him and it is said that the deputies offered no resistance. The negro was hanged to a tree, after which many shots were fired into his body. He was charged with assault upon a white woman. This was the second attempt in two days to lynch Strauss.

Church organization in behalf of the cause of temperance was voted down yesterday at the morning session of the annual meeting of Washington Presbytery, held at the First Presbyterian Church of the capital city. The action of the churchmen followed the introduction of the report of the committee on temperance by Rev. T. H. Richards, of Germantown, Md., which approved the plan to organize an inter-church council for the purpose of fighting the alcohol evil. Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe led the opposition to the report and was sustained by a substantial majority. Those opposing the report express the conviction that it is not fitting that the church should enter upon active participation in a crusade involving political issues.

A dispatch from Puerto Cortez, Honduras, says that the United States gunboat Marietta, Capt. Fullam commanding, left there Monday night for Trujillo, Honduras, for the purpose of investigating and punishing an outrage on the United States flag. According to information, Col. Isaula, the Honduran revolutionary leader, who is in command of the occupation forces at Trujillo, hauled down a United States flag from a house occupied by an American, and when the American protested, Isaula became enraged, tore the flag to tatters, spat upon it, and then threw it on the ground and stamped it with his feet. When the outrage was reported to Capt. Fullam, he telegraphed the gunboat Paducah to meet him at Ceiba, and the two war ships will proceed to Trujillo.

D. A. R.

The sensational feature of the Daughters of the American Revolution meeting in Washington yesterday, was furnished by the failure of Mrs. M. E. Davis, the treasurer-general, to make her report at the proper time. The report of the corresponding secretary-general had been read and adopted and Mrs. Davis's report was next in order, but there was neither a report nor a Mrs Davis, and it was not until she had been called for several times that the lady finally made her appearance. When she finally did come to the platform she announced in a low tone of voice that she had no report to make because she could not get it from the printer.

Following up her explanation, Mrs. Davis asked of the president general why no recommendations were made on her report of last year, saying that it had been left "up in the air."

Mrs. McLean replied: "That seems to be the condition of your report this year." The latter remark created considerable excitement and a number of delegates endeavored to secure recognition.

Mrs. McLean restored the excited delegates to order and then demanded to know from the treasury general when she would be able to report. "As soon as I get my report from the printer," replied Mrs. Davis, turning to leave the platform.

"See that you have your report here this afternoon," said Mrs. McLean to the retreating treasury general in a voice that was cold and hard as steel.

When Mrs. Davis submitted her report in the afternoon she tried to spring a sensation by reading a long explanation of the purchase of railroad bonds by the national board of management as investment for the building fund.

As soon as Mrs. Davis had finished her report proper she started to read the story of the purchase of bonds.

Instantly a number of delegates arose and protested. Mrs. McLean stopped Mrs. Davis, declaring her out of order, and the congress adopted a motion made by Mrs. Thompson, of Massachusetts, declaring the treasurer general out of order.

The report showed that the society has a total of $24,447 bonds—$10,150 in Baltimore and Ohio and $10,326 in the Union Pacific.

In her report Mrs. Davis states that she was not consulted about the purchase of the bonds and that she paid out checks for the investments on the recommendation of the finance committee, of which she is not a member, but of which she recommends that she be made a member.

The society owes $4,570 on the contract for the rear pavilions of Continental Hall, Mrs. Davis reported, and $9,615 on the contract for the heating plant, making a total of $14,185 due on the two contracts. "As there is only $12,617.22 available to meet the amount due on these two contracts," said Mrs. Davis, "there is lacking $1,567.78 to cover the amount still due on the contract for the heating plant.

During the sessions the recording secretary general, Miss Elizabeth F. Pierce; the chairman of the national university committee, Mrs. Alexander Patton, and the vice president general in charge of organization, Mrs. Charlotte Emerson Main, made their reports.

Mrs. Main's report shows that there are now 49,553 active members of the society, an increase for the year of 4,647. There are 797 organized chapters and 99 unorganized chapters, an increase of 43.

The name of Mrs. Ellen Washington Howard, of Alexandria, a great-niece of George Washington, it was announced by "insurgent" leaders last night, probably will be presented Thursday as a candidate for president general.

The new union station will not be occupied and used by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad on May 1, as had been announced. The occupancy will be delayed at least five months.

FEEL RUN DOWN?

Many people do in early spring. Perhaps it is the reaction from the winter manner of living. But, whatever the cause, it is an unpleasant condition, unfitting its victims for the activities of life—the proper enjoyment of life itself, in fact. A simple, altogether unobjectionable remedy, well calculated, according to physicians, to restore the lost tone and vitality to the rundown system is composed of 1-4 oz. Fluid Extract Buchu, 1 oz. Hulso Mixture, 1-4 oz. Fluid Extract Gentian Compound and 15 ozs. water. These ingredients are obtained at small expense at any good drug store and may be combined by the pharmacist or at home, as desired. The dose is one teaspoonful three times a day, before meals. The preparation is said to be one of the best spring tonics known to medical men.

City Council.

A called meeting of the City Council was held last night for the purpose of tendering expressions of regret at the death of John T. Sweeney, who during the past quarter of a century had been a prominent member to both the Board of Aldermen and Common Council, he having for several years presided over the lower board and since 1901 filled the position of President of the Alderman.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The board was called to order by Vice President Curtin who stated the object of the meeting, after which Mr. W. H. Sweeney, colleague of the deceased from the Fourth ward, arose and in a few well-chosen and feeling remarks formally announced the death of the board. He voiced the sentiment of all by saying that the death of Mr. Sweeney was a loss to the city which he had faithfully served since early manhood. The speaker bore witness to the patient suffering of the late president during his long illness, after which he submitted suitable resolutions [See official proceedings] expressive of the worth of the deceased.

Mr. Simpson then arose and delivered a brief but fitting eulogium on the deceased. He said the remarks of the preceding speaker struck a responsive chord in the hearts of all who had mingled with the deceased. Mr. Simpson referred to his relations with the late president, officially and otherwise, during which there had never been the slightest semblance of friction. He depicted him as a man without prejudice, independent in his utterances, and said that his memory would extend beyond the tomb.

He was followed by Mr. Brill who in a succinct manner expressed his regret at the death of Mr. Sweeney and said that honored and respected as he was his loss to the community was to be deplored. The speaker heartily endorsed the resolutions, which were subsequently adopted by a unanimous vote.

The board then adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock Thursday morning for the purpose of attending the funeral.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The board was called to order at 8:15 o'clock.

The president stated that the meeting had been called to take suitable action in regard to the death of Mr. John T. Sweeney, the late president of the Board of Aldermen.

A set of resolutions was received from the Board of Aldermen (which will be seen in the official proceedings) paying a just tribute to the memory of their late president.

Mr. Snowden (Mr. Uhler in the chair) paid tribute to the late John T. Sweeney whom, he stated, he had known since boyhood. Mr. Sweeney, or "Jack" as he was familiarly known by his associates, was a faithful, honest man, God's noblest work. His over-cautiousness had at times, he feared, bordered on stubborness—his only fault, but when men stand firm on what they believe to be right even those who oppose them honor them. He and "Jack" had had their tilts while he (Mr. Sweeney) was a member of the Common Council, but "Jack" always did what he thought was right. He might have made mistakes, as had others, but he was a faithful and conscientious official and would be greatly missed by his associates. He had gone to his last reward after a long and painful illness and may his soul rest in peace.

Mr. Strauss paid tribute to the uprightness and integrity of Mr. Sweeney, and said that the city had lost a most valuable public-spirited man.

The action of the Board of Aldermen was unanimously concurred in by a rising vote.

Council then adjourned to meet Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Peace Congress.

Yesterday's whirlwind programme for the Peace Congress in New York which included four meetings, one conference and four receptions to delegates, was all guided through troubled waters without the hand of the captain. But the spirit of Mr. Carnegie was present and it manifested itself in a gradually evolved determination to separate the sheep of peace from the goats of disorder and radicalism in the fold of the peace workers. No resolutions were passed against the recalcitant ones; no condemnation of the anti-peace expressions was put to paper; that will all come about at the general conference to be held in Carnegie Hall today. But upon the heads of those who have dared to say that there could be anything desirable except immediate and universal peace there was visited yesterday the disapproval of the loyal ones.

This disapproval expressed itself in the form of interruptions and low cries of "no, no," when a representative of the country dared to tell an audience at the Hotel Astor that it was all right to talk of abolishing war but that the United States should keep its powder dry just the same. It was manifested when another speaker presumed to speak of the revolutionary war in anything but an apologetic spirit. Across the teacups at the Barnard Club and over the salad dishes at Sherry's the name of one man was whispered with sidelong glances of suspicion; that man being Mr. W. T. Stead, of London, who has said that there can be no such thing as disarmament and that peace congresses always talk flapdoodle and do nothing.

To the published record of the peace congress a new chapter was added yesterday when the women were heard from. What the gentler delegates to the congress had to say about war was not the least of the contributions that have been made to the literature of the subject in the past two days. One of the speakers at the morning's session for women at Carnegie Hall, Mrs. Ellen M. Henrotin, ex-president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Chicago, made bold to say that in these times women had found a new way of expressing themselves, and one of these new expressions was the determination not to bear children for the cannon's mouth. Race suicide had its inception from this determination, said the speaker.

Today's Telegraphic News

D. A. R.

Washington, D. C., 17.—"Woman has found that it does not pay to make a savings bank out of her stocking." This is the slogan of the McLeanites in their defense of the financial policies of the finance committee of the Daughters of the American Revolution now holding their annual congress here. The finance committee at the suggestion of Mrs. McLean, invested the building fund of the society in railroad bonds during the past year and it is concerning the wisdom of this departure in the finances of the organization that the hottest fight of the congress is being fought.

At the beginning of the third day of the Congress, the McLeanites, were in the ascendency, having gotten the congress to pass a resolution approving the course of the finance committee. The matter will come up again when the report of the committee on recommendations in the reports of general officers is made later in the week and in the meantime the administration friends are preaching among the delegates from the above text, furnished by Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey, of the District of Columbia. Mrs. Mussey's declaration that the stocking had long since ceased to be a safe savings bank, was vigorously applauded by the daughters.

The morning session today was taken up largely in the dedication of a memorial portico in front of the Continental Hall.

Volcanic Horrors.

Valparaiso, Chili, April 17.—Meagre advices received today indicate southern Chili is in the throes of a volcanic horror almost as terrifying as the earthquake disaster of last year. Gigantic forest fires have been started by the hot lava and hundreds of persons as well as thousands of cattle, are fleeing for their lives from the flames. Slight earthquake shocks have accompanied the eruption, and this has added to the panic. Lava and boiling water have been emitted from one of the numerous Andean volcanos. Subterranean rumblings, inky blackness and electric displays of terrifying force have accompanied the eruption. Valdivia province has suffered the most, but the country from Tolten south almost to Port Monti is said to be affected. In the Bueno river district the disaster is said to be at its worst. So far the reports indicate little loss of life, but it is feared when the full story is told it will be found many persons perished.

Minister Welcomed.

New York, April 17.—Rev. Charles F. Aked, who arrived today on the steamer Carmania to assume his duties as pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, John D. Rockefeller's New York place of worship, was welcomed at the pier by John D. Rockefeller, jr, and several members of his Bible class. Mr. Aked declined to discuss his plans at any length, saying he prefers to make a statement on Sunday morning.

"I will say, however," he declared, "I come to America with great anticipations of the possibilities before me. I am now forty-two years of age. I should have come ten years ago. While my work at Liverpool has filled my time acceptably, I think I should have made more of my time here." Mr. Aked is accompanied by Mrs. Aked and Rev. Thomas Law, who expects to speak at the Peace Conference and will then visit several of the leading cities of the country.

The Corey-Gillman Nuptials.

New York, April 17.—William Ellis Corey, president of the steel trust, and Mabelle Gillman, the American actress now in Paris, to whom he has been devoted for months, will be married in this city on May 7, according to an announcement made by Major James O. Harley, a cousin of Miss Gillman. It has been reported Corey would go to Paris to marry Miss Gillman soon. Major Harley, however, says both Corey and Miss Gillman are anxious that the ceremony shall be performed in this country. After the wedding Major Harley expects Corey and his bride to go to Europe, returning to New York about August 1, to take up a permanent residence here. The major admitted he does not enjoy the confidence either of his cousin or Corey enough to know much about their plans, except that the wedding will be quiet and only their closest friends will be invited.

King Edward Sued.

Boston, April 17.—King Edward of England is defendant in a suit for damages brought by Mrs. Annie B. Mason, of this city. The action is to recover damages for personal injuries received while traveling on the Intercolonial Railway in Canada. Since this road is not a corporation, but the property of the British Crown, the defense contends that it is a derogation of the sovereignty of independence contrary to law and to the comity of nations that funds belonging to the king should be withheld by a process of the court, and moved that such action be dismissed. Judge Fessenden has the case under consideration.

Arrest of Alleged Robber.

St. Paul, Minn., April 17.—John Gunderson, a discharged employee of the Northern Express Company, accused by Clerk Zimmerman of stealing $25,000 from the company's safe at the union depot, Tuesday night, by forcing Zimmerman at the point of a pistol to open the safe, was arrested early today. The money has not been recovered. The police allege Gunderson is the right person and that the money has been "planted."

Fire in Department Store.

Milwaukee Wis. April 17.—Fire early today in the Kroeger Brothers Department store caused a loss of $800,000. The fire was confined to the top floor but the entire stock of goods valued at $1,000,000 was damaged by water.

Doctor Kills His Wife.

Liberty, N. C., April 17.—While his wife was advancing on him with a pistol ready to shoot, Dr. B. D. Patterson today shot and killed her. The couple had quarreled over the doctor's female patients.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Reported Rupture.

New York, April 17.—Determined efforts made today to trace the persistent rumor that there is a serious break in the group of well known financiers who have long constituted what is known as the Harriman syndicate failed to reveal a tangible peg on which to hang the report, yet not a prominent disinterested financier in Wall street could be found who was willing to be quoted as saying that the trouble does not exist. Briefly, the rumor is that Mr. Schiff has become greatly dissatisfied and the banker has sought privately to curb the radicalism of the railroader. This Harriman is said to have resented with the result that two factions have been formed. H. H. Rogers, Rockefeller and the Standard Oil interests are standing pat on the high financiering method and technique of Harriman, while the conservative element, represented by Henry C. Frick and the foreign capitalists whose interests Schiff dominates, have allied themselves with the latter.

Representatives of both sides today refused absolutely to be drawn into discussion of the affair, and it is probable that the first real effect of the rupture in the entente cordiale will show itself at the next violent movement of the stock market. Today the impression that "there is something hanging over Union Pacific" still prevails in the street, and the poor rallying power of the stock continues to be a matter of observation. The effect is apparent, but the cause has not yet been diagnosed by the financial doctors.

Before the Interstate Commerce Commission resumes its investigation tomorrow into the question of the contest by Harriman of the so-called Harriman lines of railroads, special counsel Kellogg, of the commission, will make application for an order compelling Harriman to answer questions which he declined to reply to at the recent investigation in this city. The decision of the court will probably be made before the session opens tomorrow.

Efforts to Procure Bail.

New York, April 17.—With the return of District Attorney Jerome from his home at Lakeville today it is expected the first steps will be taken looking to securing Harry Thaw's release on bail. Attorney O'Reilly, who for the present is in charge of Thaw's interests, announced he expected to have a conference with Jerome on the subject of bail as soon as the District Attorney reaches New York. O'Reilly hopes to convince Jerome that Thaw should be allowed to give bail. It is not likely he will succeed. O'Reilly will then make formal application and fight the matter out before the judge of whom the request is made. It is probably habeas corpus proceedings will be instituted to present the matter before the court. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw today refused to comment in any manner upon the statement issued yesterday by her mother, Mrs. Charles J. Holman. All the Thaw forces were silent on the matter. Thaw today was in good spirits. While he is hopeful, of being released on bail he has been warned that the application will probably fail and has reconciled himself to the idea of spending another summer in the Tombs.

Harry Thaw's hope of District Attorney Jerome withdrawing his opposition to his release on bail was shattered this afternoon when the county prosecutor got back to his office from Lakeville, and announced that he positively would not hear of such a thing.

"Eight witnesses in the recent trial declared they believe Thaw is insane, and the jury stood seven to five for first degree murder," said Jerome. "I believe in view of these facts, it is only right that Thaw should stay in the tombs until his next trial."

Attorney O'Reilly saw Jerome for a few moments, but apparently got no satisfaction in his appeal that the district attorney allow Thaw's release on bail.

The Peace Conference.

New York, April 17.—After an interesting session devoted to the discussion and adoption of resolutions, delegates to the National Arbitration and Peace Conference prepared this afternoon for the wind up of the three days' congress which brought together peace advocates from all parts of the world.

At the morning session resolutions on various subjects were introduced. Dr. Benjamin F. Trueblood presided.

While this open session was in progress, there was another conference of women leaders in the peace cause at the Tabernacle Church, presided over by Lucia Ames Mead. Addresses were limited to ten minutes.

This afternoon's session will be devoted to a discussion of "The legislative and judicial aspects of the peace movement.

Missing Man.

New York, April 17.—Whether or not Edward N. M. Roehr, a former assemblyman and a lawyer, who has been missing for ten days, is a defaulter will not be known until the results of an investigation now being made by District Attorney Clarke, of Kings county becomes known. Roehr was trustee for large estates, and according to rumor he is said to have lost $250,000 in investments in the mortgage and realty company. Whether any of the money held by him in trust were lost in this venture is not known.

Dobbin Penniman, general counsel for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, Beldame Road, near Roland Avenue, was entirely destroyed by fire at 4:30 o'clock today. The family was awakened by the smoke, and hastily fled from the burning building in their night clothes, to safety in the cold chill of the morning. No estimate of the loss has yet been made.

Overdue Steamer.

Philadelphia, April 17.—The liner Noorland is still unreported at the Maritime Exchange, and is now three days over due. The vessel carries 80 cabin passengers and 350 steerage. No anxiety is felt by the steamer's owners, but it is thought that the recent heavy gales have retarded the progress.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 17.—The market was strong with the most important factor, the scant supply of stocks even at higher price levels. There was impressive buying in a number of issues for special purposes. Several stocks traded in made gains of from 1 to 2 points in the first hour.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

"The Witch of Bramble Hollow."

The entertainment at St. Mary's last night was certainly one of the best efforts of home talent ever presented in this city.

The pupils of the school appeared in a pretty little drama, which they presented in a manner that showed much as well as careful training. tly at 8 o'clock the curtain open- a scene of loveliness—20 young aintily costumed amid artistic ions. It was the opening scene eautiful play, "The Witch of Hollow," and from the opening "Joys of Spring," to the last "Fading, Still Fading" the au- as delighted.

followed the ceremony of the en who, in the person of Ella s a dream of loveliness as, sur- by her devoted subjects, she re- e crown of roses their love had

Miss Sallie Patterson then rendered Valse op. 34 No. 1 Chopin which merited the applause it received.

Act 2, scene 1, at school, introduced some lovely characters, Agnes Gilroy, as Sister Angela, made an excellent teacher while her pupils were equally interesting. In this scene Misses E. Willis and F. Cowhig sang a charming duet and here, too, the plot of the play began to unravel. The trio from Behr, with Misses T. Crilly, L. Hill and Evelyn Wiley at the piano was ably rendered.

Scene 2 was by many declared the prettiest of the evening, as Gyp, the little gypsy dancer, completely won all hearts. This role was ably carried by little Madge Clary who, by her amusing remarks, deserved the rounds of applause she received. Misses Josephine and Margaret Daly then rendered "King of the Carnival," by E. Deshayer, in a faultless manner,

Act 3 introduced Catherine Birrell who, as the "Witch of Bramble Hollow," was faultless. The scene was touching in the extreme when she made herself known to her daughter Maurine. Then came the gypsy band with Nancy Groh as queen. Their costumes were indeed typical and the whole scene was one of intense interest.

The violin trio of Misses A. Desio, M. Faber and N. Groh was well received.

Act 4, the death of Lady Hardgrave, the "Witch of Bramble Hollow," was a sweet picture of repentance. Little Gyp, now the restored heiress to the wealth of her dead parent, Maurine, daughter of Lady Hardgrave, Sister Angela and the queen of the gypsies made this act thoroughly beautiful as they knelt about the dying witch.

Misses F. Cowhig and E. Willis then played a piano duet, "Galop de Concert," by Mori in a truly creditable manner. The play closed with a reunion in the home of Maurine and Gyp of all the old pupils now grown to womanhood; in this scene all connected with their early life appeared and an artistic grouping was made as they gathered around a statue of the Mother of God and sang an evening hymn to the Virgin Mary.

The people of Alexandria and friends of the institution responded so generously to the appeal of the sisters that crowds had to be turned away for lack of room. To give those holding tickets and all others who may wish to see the play an opportunity, it will be repeated tonight at the same hour, 8 o'clock.

Counter Charges.

Late yesterday evening a young man named L. D Moore, of Richmond, but who recently lived in Fairfax county, telephoned to the station house that a young man named Mary Kane, living with family on King street, had stolen $40 at five-dollar bills from him. Lieutenant Smith arrested the woman, and after the man in whose house the accused lives swore out a warrant against Moore charging him with having committed a criminal assault on the defendant. The case was examined in the Police Court last night, when Moore testified that he had known the woman for the past six months and had been in her company on Alfred street ona previous occasion; that he met her standing at the gate of her home about 4:30 o'clock yesterday evening and upon her invitation entered the house with her; that he gave her $2, and later missing $40 he returned and demanded that she return the money. The young woman denied having the money and her arrest followed. The woman in her statement said that she was sitting in the front room of her home when Moore entered; that he locked the door, seized her and pulled her upstairs into her room; that she never saw the man before in her life; that she screamed and endeavored to extricate herself from him, but that he put one of his hands over her mouth, and that her assailant subsequently left the house. Justice Caton dismissed both charges, there being no evidence to substantiate the allegations of either the woman or the man.

Sent on to the Grand Jury.

H. B. Dameron, who had been arrested in Lynchburg on suspicion of stealing a gold watch, chain, diamond ring and $110 from W. H. Truett in this city about a year ago, was brought here yesterday by Officer Young who had been sent to Lynchburg for that purpose. The accused was arraigned in the Police Court this morning, when Truett positively identified the watch and chain which had been recovered by the Lynchburg police as his property. Dameron in his defense denied having stolen the articles, and said he advanced a man $5 on the watch at the union station in this city last July, and that having owed a friend in Lynchburg $50 he gave him $15 and the watch in payment. Justice Caton sent Dameron on to the grand jury.

W. C. T. U.

Col. L. S. Brown, general agent of the Southern Railway, is ill with blood poisoning at his apartments in the Sterling, in Washington. He has been ill a week, and his condition occasions alarm to his family and his associates in the railway service.

Mr. H. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax Courthouse, employed in the assessors' office at the District building, in Washington, who has many friends in this city, was stricken with paralysis yesterday morning while at work at his desk. His entire left side was paralyzed. He was taken to his home in Washington by Mr. J. W. Daniel, a fellow-clerk.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

William Speakes, colored, arrested by Special Officer Thomas Carter and Officer Arrington for disorderly conduct on the fair grounds, was fined $2 50.

Henry Simpson, arrested by Officer Henderson for drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Mabel Baker, arrested by Officer Henderson for disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

H. B. Dameron, arrested by Officer Young charged with stealing a watch, ring and $110 from W. H. Truett, was sent on to the grand jury.

Bullet Extracted.

Mr. Howard W. Smith, counsel for William Midgets, who is in jail here under sentence of death for killing Charles Smith, of Alexandria, came here Tuesday morning with an order from Judge Louis C. Barley, judge of the Corporation court of that city, to extract the bullet from the leg of Midgets. Midgets was brought to the office of Dr. W. J. Chewning and a ball extracted which weighed 71 grains, while that of a 32-calibre weighs 88 grains. The object in taking out this ball is for evidence in a proposed appeal, as the defense claimed he was shot with a 38-calibre ball.—[Fredericksburg Star.

Death of Mrs. Walton.

Mrs. Anna S. Walton died at her home near Woodlawn Mansion, in lower Fairfax county, this morning, at 3 o'clock, aged 73 years. Mrs. Walton was the widow of Walter Walton and came to this section of the country in 1846 with the first Friends who settled in the Woodstock neighborhood at that time. Throughout life she enjoyed the confidence and respect of all who knew her. She leaves two children—Mr. Edward M. Walton and Miss Sarah Walton.

Another Chicken Story.

A gentleman living on south Fairfax street contributes the latest chicken story. On Sunday last he killed a rooster for dinner, which caused a Minorca hen considerable distress. The latter moped about the yard disconsolately after the slaughter of its mate, and this morning was found dead by its owner, the hen having hanged itself on an iron hook during the night.

Old Papers.

Mayor Paff today received a letter from Mr. J. C. Cartledge, of Elmira, N. Y., enclosing two old letters written in 1779 to G. W. Fairfax and to Col. J. C. Carlyle. These letters, Mr. Cartledge says, he took from a house in this city while he was quartered here with the federal troops in 1862 and he now wishes to restore them to their rightful owners.

The building committee of The George R. Hill Memorial Building, to be erected by the Washington Street M. E. Church South, met last night and accepted the plans and specifications furnished by the architect, Mr. W. Leon Clark. Bids will be received and considered, and the contract awarded without delay.

The Candidates.

The time for filing notices of the candidates for Congress for this district expired today. Only Messrs. Carlin, Ryan, Nicol and Gordon filed such notices, so they will be the candidates in the primary to be held June 19. Col. Hooe, of Loudoun, decided to withdraw from the race.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c.

Royal Arcanum.

About 100 officers and delegates from all parts of Virginia are in Danville in attendance upon the twenty-fifth session of the Grand Council, Royal Arcanum of Virginia, which convened there yesterday afternoon.

The opening session was called to order by Grand Regent William Bickers, of Richmond. The address of welcome to the visiting delegates was delivered by Rev. J. Cleveland Hall. The address of Mr. Hall was responded to by the grand regent.

The business transacted at the session yesterday afternoon was merely of a routine nature. Last night the organization was perfected by the election of the following officers: W. M. Bickers, of Richmond, past grand regent; Howard G. Avery, of Norfolk, grand regent; James McCreedy, of Roanoke, grand vice regent; James B. Blanks, of Petersburg, grand secretary; A. B. Botts, of Fredericksburg, grand treasurer; W. T. Dabney, of Richmond, grand orator; H. K. Field, of Alexandria, grand chaplain; Minetree Folks, of Richmond, grand guide; R. C. Mr. Bryan.

With William Jennings Bryan as the chief attraction, the democracy of Brooklyn last night, in observance of the anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson, engaged in an enthusiastic democratic reunion and demonstration. The function was the annual dinner of the Brooklyn Democratic Club.

Mr. Bryan was given a splendid reception, and delivered a characteristic discourse, taking for his subject "Thomas Jefferson."

Bryan's boom for the presidency was given impetus when Edward M. Shepard declared in the name of the club the hope that the Nebraskan would lead the party in 1908.

George Fred Williams declared mere Government regulation of railroads impossible and inexpedient.

Former Governor Tyler of Virginia said, the people of the South are practically united for Bryan, and that the mention of his name is as potent in flashing a magic spell of enthusiasm as it was in 1896. He believed that millions of American voters would never forsake the banner of Mr. Bryan.

Fear Assassination.

As a result of the two recent murderous holdups at Port Norfolk and Pinners Point, the residents in the two localities are greatly excited, and there is hardly a man who will venture on the streets at a late hour at night unless armed, and even then he fears that he might be mistaken for a highwayman and fired upon.

On Monday night just such a mistake was made, and a young man named King narrowly escaped with his life, several shots having been fired at him. It seems that since the last holdup on the streets at Pinners Point a number of the residents have formed themselves in o a vigilance corps in order to capture the perpetrators of the crimes.

Saturday night at a late hour young King was seen standing near Brock's furniture store. Thinking that he was a burglar, one of the preservers of the peace demanded that he throw up his hands. King was taken by surprise, and, believing the men were highway, immediately turned and ran. At that point the men who tried to take him into custody began firing at him. None of the shots took effect, however, and King continued his flight until Thurston's store was reached. He ran into the place completely exhausted, and it was then learned that a serious mistake had been made.

Smith Confesses.

John Smith, charged with the assassination of Dr. B. D. Cox, went on the witness stand at Lexington, Ky., yesterday and fully confessed to the assassination of Jim Cockrill, saying Britton was not present, but that he, Court Jett and John Abner killed Cockrill. Smith fired once, Jett four times and Abner three times.

After detailing movements of the various men Smith said that while they were discussing plans to kill Dr. Cox it was learned that Cockrill would be in Jackson the following day. It was immediately arranged to kill Cockrill from the courthouse window with guns given by Judge Hargis for the purpose. That night Smith, John Abner and Curtis Jett secreted themselves in the courthouse. The next day, when Cockrill passed the courthouse, the men stationed at the window fired upon him. He fell at the second fire.

Smith, after giving his testimony, was taken, under guard, by his brother to a boarding-house.

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poison enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package.

For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. Sold by E. S Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.
